Hon'ble B.C. Kandpal, J.

The applicant has applied for bail in case crime no. 294 of 2004, U/S 302 I.P.C., Police Station – Ranipur, District – Haridwar.

Heard Sri Pankaj Purohit, learned counsel for the applicant, learned A.G.A. and perused the record.

The record shows that the case rests on circumstantial evidence as the applicant is not named in the F.I.R.

The motive which is alleged by the prosecution does not appear to be much convincing. Further, the prosecution could not show any substantive and cogent evidence as yet which may connect the applicant with the commission of crime.

Having considered the aforesaid circumstances, I think it just and proper to release the applicant on bail at this stage.

Let the applicant, Muzammil be released on bail on executing personal bond and furnishing two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of C.J.M., concerned.

(B.C. Kandpal, J.)
